
Warrenville Public Library District

Part-time Position Available

Adult Services Librarian

Includes morning, afternoon, evening and weekend hours (average 30 hours per week)

Every day is different when you're a WPLD librarian. You'll have the opportunity to make a positive difference in someone's life: connect them with a new book or author, find the nugget of information they've been searching for, help them download a book to the newfangled device their kids gifted them, give them opportunities to learn new things or point them to resources that improve their circumstances. The variety of responsibilities – from programming to technical assistance to collection development – make this job both challenging and enjoyable.
